DEDICATION

To

J. LESSLIE HALL

Who lives in death, a hallowed memory to his students and a sacred symbol of the pioneers who gave their all that William and Mary might rise, phoenix-like from the ashes of a dead but glorious past, to lustrous peaks, glimmering in the morning sun of a new day and beckoning to a great and high destiny.

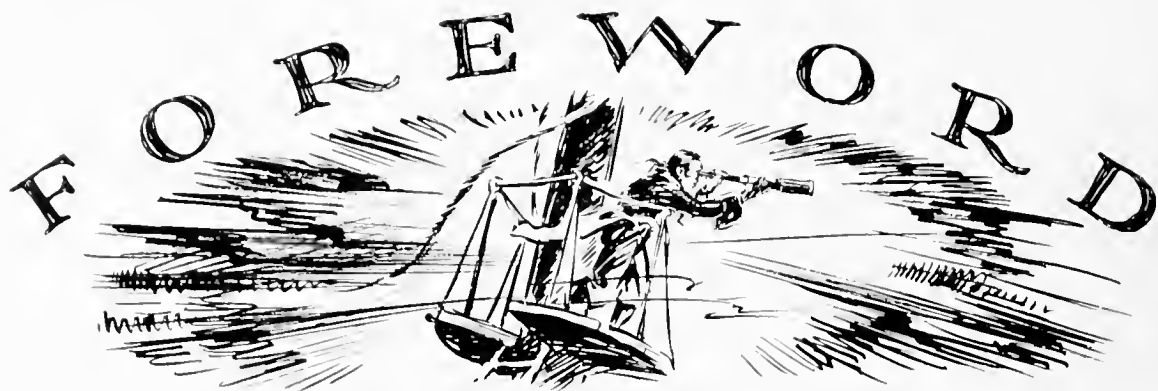

DR. JOHN LESSLIE HALL

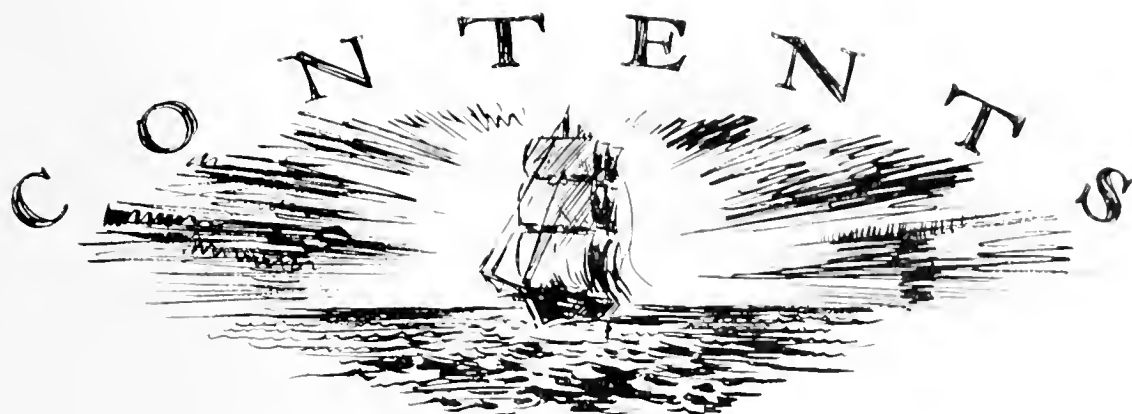

Member of William and Mary Faculty
1888 to 1928

THE COLONIAL ECHO of 1929 is our contribution to the enduring record of William and Mary. It is an illustrated story of events that have made this year different from any other. In years to come, if the memory of your Alma Mater has been dulled by the swift passage of events, and if you should glance through these pages again, and if they should refresh the pleasant memories of your college days, and if you should in spirit live over again your life here, then we will consider our purpose accomplished and our work a success.

THE CREW

Alma Mater

*Hark! The students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear;
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.*

CHORUS

*William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail!*

*All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days;
Singing loud from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.*

*Iron shod or golden sandaled
Shall the years go by—
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.*

*God our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry—
Bless the College of our boyhood,
Let her never die.*

The Season

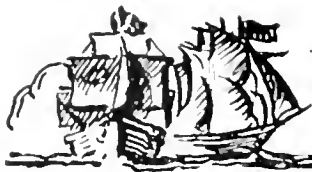

Results of the 1928 William and Mary football season can best be described as negative. Although the Indians won six games, and lost three, most of the wins were nothing remarkable, while one of the games lost was a distinct surprise to the William and Mary adherents, as well as their opponents. On top of this came two nothing-nothing ties, with teams the Green, Gold and Silver warriors were scheduled to defeat.

When Coach Buck took over things in early September a disinct problem was presented. Five varsity men had graduated the previous year, the two senior players back in college were out on account of injuries, and on top of this he had to face a freshman rule, in effect for the first time. In other words, the team had to be built from material out of two classes alone.

The season opened in grand style. September 22, however, Lynchburg sent a team to Williamsburg that could not get started that night, and Bocock's charges left the field at 10:30 o'clock with 11 points to their credit, with their opponents holding no empty box.

That was the last time that the Indians tasted victory, however, until November 4. During this period of time, they suffered their three losses, and the two in which mired the season's record.

Following the Lynchburg fray, Marshall College came on from the Ohio valley, and insisted on keeping the ball in the middle of the field the entire game.

A week later, the Braves went to Syracuse, and suffered the ignominious defeat when meeting the Orange, this time the score being 12-0.

On October 13, Wake Forest came up from Carolina, and instead of losing by four or five touchdowns as was expected, played a nothing all game with William and Mary and nussed a victory by inches on a near safety.

The next two Saturday nights saw Botetourt's sons lose two heartbreakers, the first going to Catholic U. by a 12-12 score, and the second to Emory and Henry, 2-0.

From this point in the season, the tide turned, the Indians winning the remaining five games.

and in doing so, running up 165 points to six for their opponents. George Washington, Roanoke, Bridgewater, Hampden-Sydney and Richmond fell in the order named.

A survey of the scoring showed that during the season the William and Mary team amassed 219 points to 54 for the opposition. Bauserman led the individual scoring with 59 points, followed by Ryan with 32 points, Scott with 27 points, Harden with 21 points and Harris with 18 points. The rest were scattered.

Prospects for the 1929 football season at William and Mary are the brightest in years—on paper. But one varsity back will be missing from last season's team, and no first string linesmen will be out. Thus, with a nucleus that includes practically all of last year's varsity, and with the wonderful material coming up from the 1928 freshman team, which was not scored on during the entire season, the prospects for a string of victories are bright.

THE SEASON

Disappointing opening play and a spectacular close featured the William and Mary basketball season for 1929. The Indians until the second semester were able to win but three games, while dropping ten, but in the final days of the season, broke into the winning column with six victories and one defeat, ending with a spectacular win over the University of Richmond.

Coach L. T. Jones, taking up the coaching reins in December, was faced with a proposition of experimentation, due to the loss of veterans through graduation, injury, and other causes. He was forced to try different combinations for a period of several weeks, and it was not until Michael Mozeleski recovered from a broken leg that he found what was needed—Sauerbrun and Mozeleski, forwards; Butler, center, and Silverman and Light, guards.

During the season's play, the Jonesmen ran up 510 points, while their opponents were gathering 546. Abe Silverman was high scorer with 166 points, while Sauerbrun was second with 121. Fourteen men scored during the season.

Swimming at William and Mary during the late winter showed the Indian tankmen to be on the losing side of the ledger at the close of the season, as they were able to cop only two meets while losing three for a percentage of .400. The campus tankmen won the first meet of the season from Catholic University and the last from Fortress Monroe, but lost intermediary matches to Washington and Lee, Virginia and Delaware.

Letters were awarded to Captain Justis, Manager Fentress, Phillipps, Wood and Kent. Numerals for freshmen were awarded to Boylan, Leach, Winfield, McPhee, Fastow, Caplan, Stoehr, Smith and Cuddihy.

THE SEASON

The opening game of William and Mary's hockey season was played with its oldest rival, one we have been unable to defeat. The Swatara eleven proved experienced for the local teams. The game was fast and hard fought throughout. In the first half William and Mary played a defensive game, but in the second half they turned to the offensive and scored three goals. Moore, center forward for William and Mary was outstanding, scoring three of the four goals. Several times she received the ball on the fifty-yard line, dribbled to the circle and shot. Maffett, at goal, played a splendid game, saving many points. Hilda Williams and Polly Swift were the stars for Sweetbriar, each scoring four goals.

The game between William and Mary and Farmville was played to a 1-1 tie. Both teams were handicapped due to the rough field they had to play on. The game was an exciting one and both teams fought hard. Milva and Osmond played well in the backfield for William and Mary. Edwards, goal keeper for Farmville, was the outstanding player for her team. Moore, center forward, scored the goal for the Indians.

The Indians proved too much for the New York University team, bringing them down to a final score of 1 to 1. Many new faces were seen on the field for the clash with the Gothamites, but they played like veterans.

The team work was unusually good. The locals appeared better organized than in previous games and played more of an offensive game than defensive. Nancy Burke, who has been out on account of an injured knee, was back and played her usual good game. Two freshmen, Young, who substituted for Burke, and Dryer, who played goal, both showed up well. Young scored a pretty goal for the Co-eds. Dryer, at goal, saved many would-be goals for the Indians.

Blanche Wood Pierce played a splendid game at her position of right half.

The William and Mary hockey players were defeated by the George Washington hockeyites, 7 to 5, in the last game of the season. Many familiar faces were recognized on the G. W. team. Several of them had played against W. & M. in hockey, basketball and tennis before.

The center half and center forward played splendid games for the Colonials. Pierce was outstanding for William and Mary. Moore scored four of the goals for the Co-eds. There will be only six varsity players back next year for the 1929 team. With King as captain and Barbara Wyatt as manager it is to be expected that a successful season will follow.

THE SEASON

W. & M. 30; Beaver 19

The William and Mary Co-ed. opened their eighth basketball season with a victory over Beaver College on the home floor, February 26 with a score of 30 to 19. The team showed much training.

W. & M. 26; Sweet Briar 14

The Indians won a nice victory over their oldest and highly esteemed opponents, Sweet Briar, on the local court February 16. The game was an unusually good one, the spirit in which both teams engaged was fine. Score was 26 to 14. William and Mary has always expected in meeting Sweet Briar a good game and a good time.

W. & M. 22; Savage 16

The William and Mary-Savage game was the second one the Co-eds have ever played in Blow gym. The game was hard fought and very exciting. The final score was 22 to 16. The victory was not determined until the last moment or two because it was nip and tuck for each team. Savage is the only team that has defeated the locals in the past four years. William and Mary can boast of a moderate record for the last three consecutive years.

W. & M. 33; George Washington 18
The Coeds journeyed to Washington and defeated another old rival, George Washington University. The game was a very interesting one, both teams using the same kind of technique. The centers figured most prominently. W. & M. doubled her score in the second half, making the game end 33 to 18.

W. & M. 33; Drexel Institute 17

The Indians paid their respects to the Liberty Bell and to "Good News" while on their visit to Drexel. The game was another victory, 33 to 17, for the locals. The guards played a beautiful game. This was the second game William and Mary has played with Drexel, having defeated them 31 to 19 in 1927.

W. & M. 36; Fredericksburg 31

This was the closest and fastest game of the season. William and Mary had to really play basketball to maintain his title. The final score was 36 to 31 in W. & M.'s favor. The forwards did wonderful work and should be congratulated.

William and Mary College Quarterly Magazine

The William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine was founded by Dr. Lyon Gardiner Tyler as a private enterprise in 1902, and as such continued until 1920, when the Magazine was taken over by the College. Since that time the Quarterly has been published by the College, and has been the medium through which many valuable and hitherto unpublished documents of historical significance have been presented to the public.

Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, President of the College, and Mr. E. G. Swem, the College librarian, are the editors of the quarterly.

When one shaft splits another o succeed once may be a matter of luck. But when one successful Annual "by Canton" is followed immediately by another—and another until they represent a continuous record of achievement, then it must mean "good marksmanship." Details of the successful Canton plan will gladly be given without obligation to any Annual editor, or manager, who is interested. ○○○○○○
